

WARRICK COUNTY COUNCIL
RESOLUTION NO. 2012-04

A Resolution Expressing Interest in the Purchase of Real Estate
Commonly Known as 203 W. Main St. in the City of Boonville, Indiana

WHEREAS, Warrick County is the owner of real estate located at 207 W. Main St. in the City of Boonville, Indiana also known as the CarQuest Auto Parts Building.

WHEREAS, the use and operation of the Warrick County Judicial Center has created a need for additional parking spaces, and

WHEREAS, real estate adjacent to the CarQuest Building commonly known as 203 W. Main St. in the City of Boonville, Indiana is currently available for purchase, and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the citizens and taxpayers of Warrick County for negotiations to be held regarding the purchase of said property.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED by the Warrick County Council that pursuant to I.C. 36-1-10.5-5 this resolution should be passed in order to express interest in the purchase of real estate adjacent to or near the CarQuest Building.

Pursuant to this resolution, the Warrick County Commissioners are free to negotiate with the owners of property adjacent to or near the CarQuest Building for its purchase in order to increase available parking for the Warrick County Judicial Center.

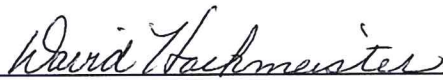

At such time as the Warrick County Commissioners have made what they believe is their best offer on the most appropriate property they may appear before the Warrick County Council for consideration of an additional appropriation for funding of said purchase in accordance with I.C. 36-1-10.5-6.
